

Shape and Color

LATEST SUBMISSION GRADE

100%

1.

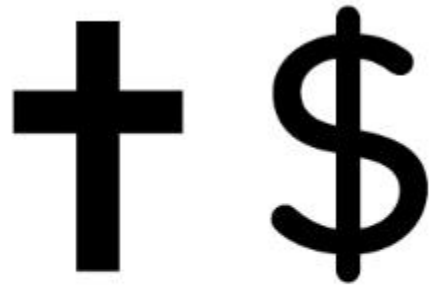

- PICTORIAL
- REPRESENTS ACTUAL THINGS
- EASY TO READ

What is the name for images that are simplified, pictorial representations of actual things, like the two images shown above?

- ☒ Icons
- ☐ Symbols
- ☐ Buttons
- ☐ Iconoclasts

2.

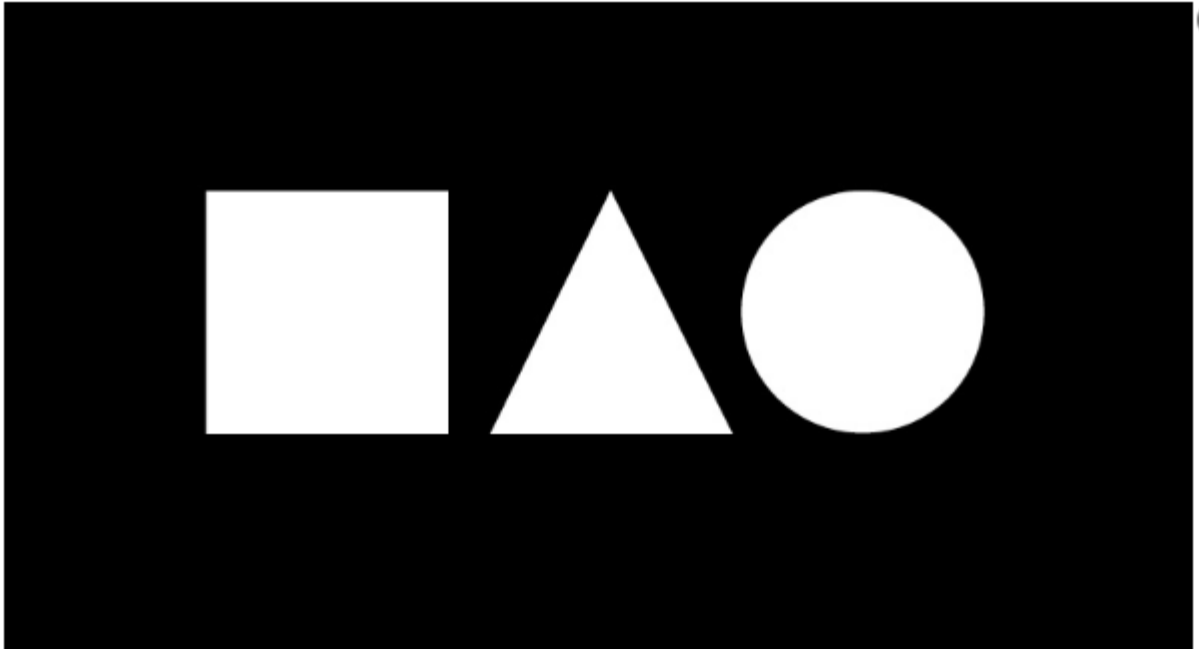

- NON-PICTORIAL
- REPRESENTS IDEAS/PRODUCTS
- LEARNED/CODED

What is the name for images that are non-pictorial representations of ideas or concepts, like the two images shown above?

- ☒ Symbols
- ☐ Pictures
- ☐ Icons
- ☐ Concepts

3.

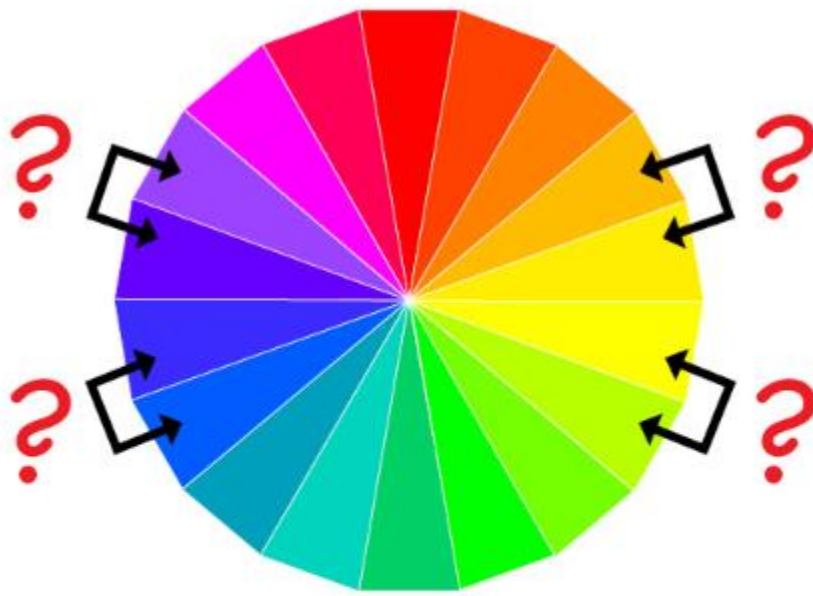

In the figure/ground image shown above, are the white objects the figure or the ground?

☐ Ground

☒ Figure

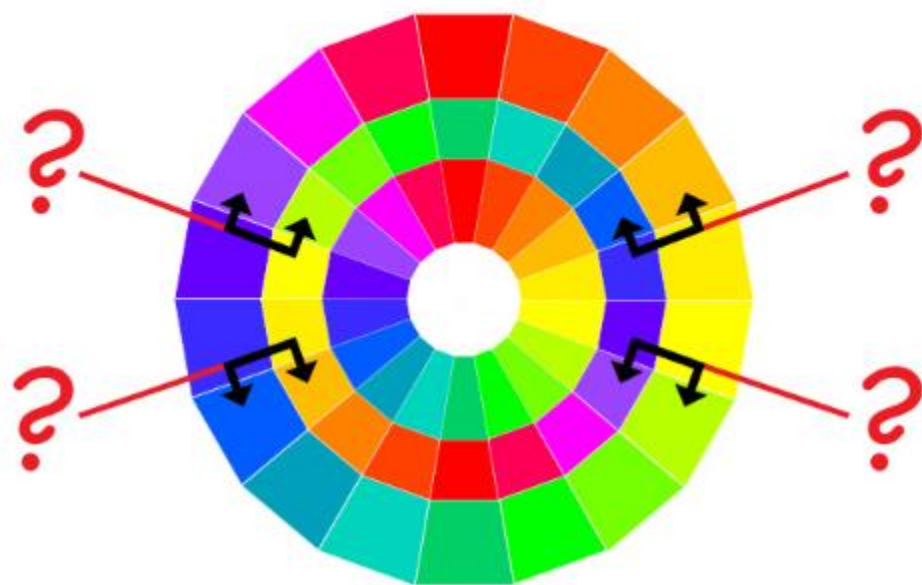

4.

In the color wheel, what is the term used to describe colors that sit next to each other?

- ☐ Classmates
- ☐ Complementary
- ☒ Analogous
- ☐ Gradations

5.

In the color wheel, what is the term used to describe colors that sit directly OPPOSITE to each other?

- ☐ Oppositional
- ☐ Enemies
- ☒ Complementary
- ☐ Analogous

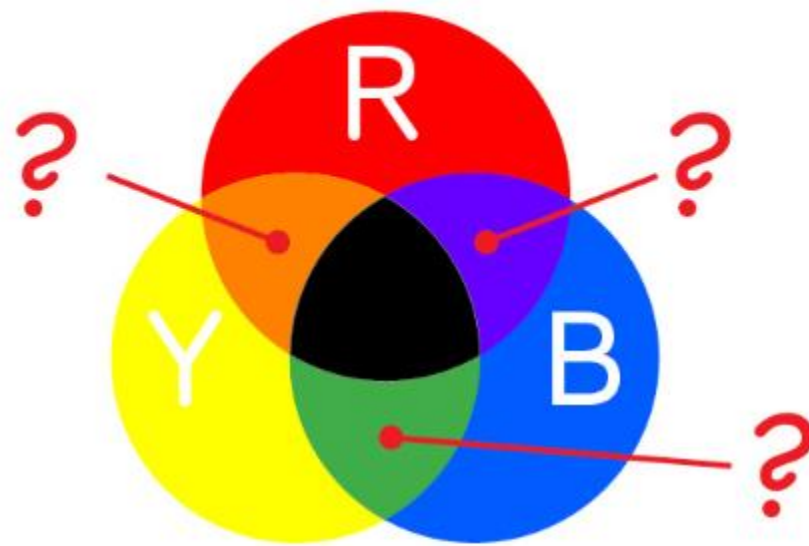

6.

What is the term used to describe the color system used for on-screen color, shown above?

- ☐ LAB
- ☐ CMYK
- ☒ RGB
- ☐ Rainbow

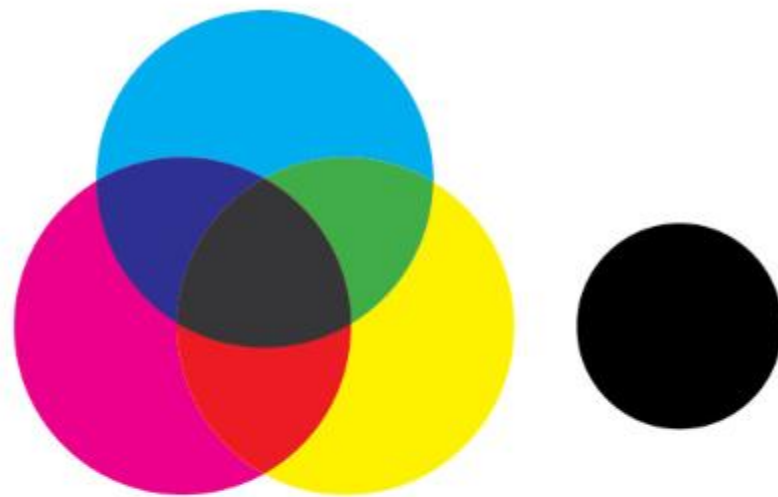

7.

What is the term used to describe the color created when you mix two primary colors?

- ☒ Secondary
- ☐ Primary
- ☐ Complimentary
- ☐ Mid-tone

8.

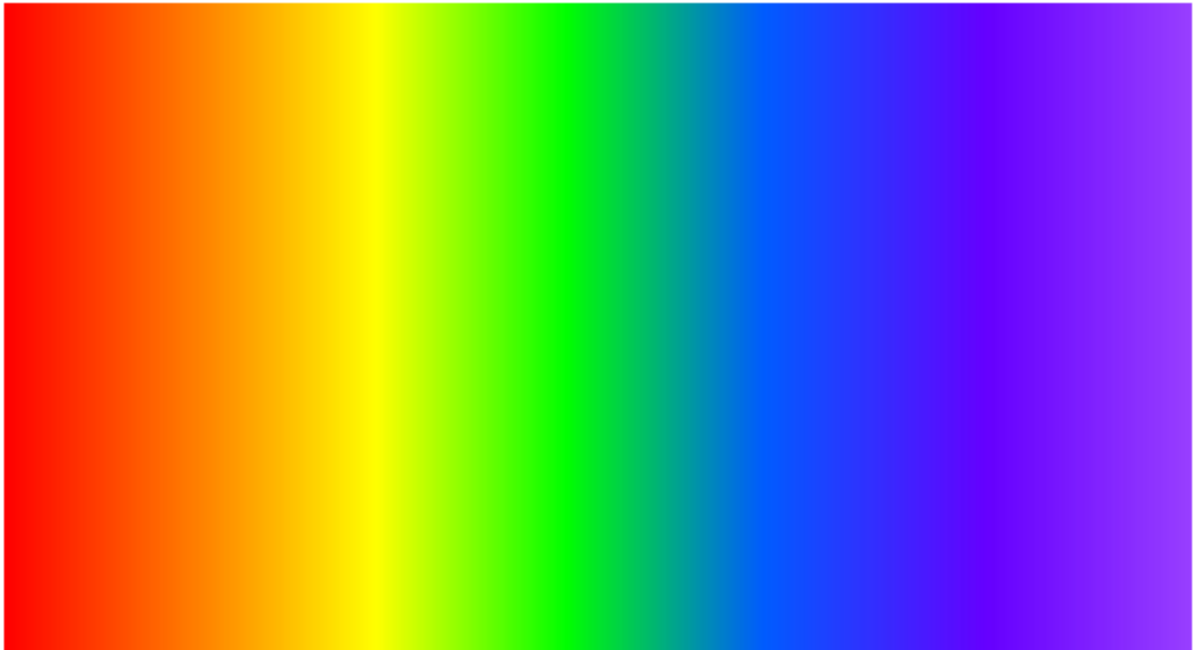

SUBTRACTIVE COLOR

What is the term used to describe the color system used in 4-color printing, shown above?

- ☐ RGB
- ☐ Spot color
- ☐ PMS
- ☒ CMYK

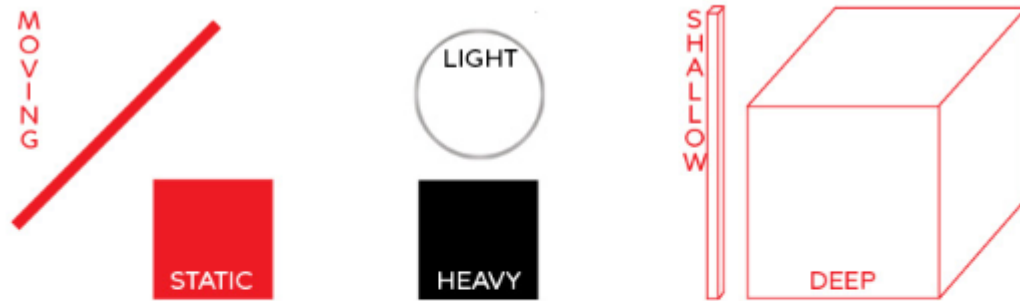

9.

Color can be controlled with changes to Hue, Saturation and Value. Which one of these is shown above?

- ☐ Saturation
- ☐ Value
- ☒ Hue

10.

What was the name of the influential German art school where Johannes Itten taught visual contrasts in shapes and forms in the early 1920s?

- ☒ Bauhaus
- ☐ Neuehaus
- ☐ CalArtz
- ☐ De Stijl Haus